OUR COACHES

ALBERT VIÑAS

For more than 12 years, he has been dedicated to padel, starting as a recognized and skilled player while simultaneously focusing on training and developing future padel players.

For over 6 years, he has run his own padel academy and is also the founder of Quality Padel Academy, an international padel academy dedicated to the global expansion of this beautiful sport.

Last year, he trained Anna Cortiles, a professional padel player, on several occasions before her departure to the USA.

Competitively, Albert Viñas has always been in the top category in Catalonia, reaching his best ranking at number 32 and number 2 in his region, Tarragona.

He has trained and benefited from the advice of Juan Alday, the current coach of many professional players.

His unwavering dedication to the sport continues to inspire and elevate the padel community worldwide.

OUR COACHES

GERMÁN PEREA

He is currently the director and coach of the Pàdel Cambrils Academy, a padel school in Tarragona that is recognized at national and international level, and many of its players are among the top 50 in Catalonia.

With 14 years of experience in padel as a player and 7 years as a coach, he has worked with groups from Estonia, Denmark, France and Russia, demonstrating his ability to adapt to different cultures and languages (Spanish/English).

He participates in the "Quality Pádel Academy" project, aimed at training future coaches, contributing to raising the standards of padel teaching.

His dedication and innovative approach continue to inspire players and coaches to reach their full potential.
